Local Home Furnishings Company is in Search of Someone to help with Warehouse, Delivery and Setup

We are a local home furnishings company that is in need of a hard working person to join our team to assist us with warehouse organization, inventory management, as well as delivery setup of our home furnishings & accessories. A basic level of strength (ability to lift a max of 50 lbs) and mobility is needed, as you will be moving inventory to and from project sites and within our warehouse.

We can also allow for some flexibility in scheduling to accommodate college students or other commitments that the employee may have. There will be some occasional weekend work as well.

We are looking for a team member that excels at getting things done quickly, is organized, and works well independently while still having the attitude of a team player. You should have a valid drivers license, a good driving record, be drug & drama free, and have clean criminal background.

Does this sound like you?

Position will average about 30 hours per week. Pay will be $8-10/hour depending on level of experience and performance. If you feel like you are a good fit for this position, please call:
